

Chapter 1.

- A.
 1. The father took his son for a trip to the country to show him how poor people can be.
 2. The poor people in this story were the boy and his father because their attitude towards life was different to see the poor and rich people.
 3. The father was speechless after listening the views of his son because his views were quite different from his father towards poor and rich people.
 4. We learned from the story that if we have all materials of world but poor of spirit , we have nothing.

Chapter 2.

- A.
 1. Emperor Akbar was in the habit of putting riddles and Puzzle to his courtiers.
 2. Akbar asked strange and witty questions from the courtiers.
 3. The courtiers were dump folded by his question and their heads began to hang low.
 4. That day Akbar asked how many crows were there in the City.
- B.
 1. Riddles and puzzles, 2. Wisdom, 3. Strange , 4. Crows, 5. Five thousand.

Chapter 3.

- A.
 1. Plenty of mice lived in a grocery shop.
 2. Mice ate everything and spoiled all the bags and also wasted bread, biscuits and fruits of the shop.
 3. Grocer decided to buy a cat for the grocery shop.
 4. The cat hunting and killing the mice .
 5. The mice planned to do some thing, to get rid of the cat .
 6. The mice decided to tie a bell around neck of cat.
- B.
 1. True , 2. False ,3. True , 4. True ,5. True, 6. False

Chapter 4.

- A.
 1. True, 2. True, 3. False, 4. False, 5. False.
- B.
 1. Ear, 2. Bother, 3. Dying, 4. Corn, stores 5. Ant, worked.

Chapter 5.

- A.
 1. Donkey, 2. Barking, 3. Proud, 4. Heard, 5. Bray.
- B.
 1. Bray,

Chapter 6.

- A.
 1. Teacher asked to bring a plastic bag along with the potatoes from each student to play a game.
 2. The number of potatoes that a child asked to put in his or her plastic bag will depend on the number of peoples he or she hates.
 3. The teacher told the children to carry the potatoes in the plastic bag with them where ever they went for one week.

4. Day after Days passed, the children started complaining teacher about the unpleasant smell of rotten potatoes.
5. The teacher explained the children that when we carry our hatred for somebody inside our heart the foul smell of hatred will contaminate our heart as rotten potatoes remain with you wherever you went.
6. We learn from the story that forgiving other is the best attitude to take. Negativity about someone will keep your mind peace away from you.

B. 1. False, 2. False, 3. True, 4. True, 5. True.

Chapter 7.

- A. 1. Man accidentally drove off the road into a ditch while driving the countryside.
2. Man asked help from a farmer.
3. Farmer said to man that old mule Gullu would took the car out of ditch.
4. Gullu was an old, weak and blind mule.
5. Farmer hitched the mule to the car with a snap of the reins and called it with different names to motivate it positively and Gullu pulled the car from the ditch.

B. 1. Driving, 2. Accidentally, 3. Near by , 4. Old, weak, 5. Blind.

Chapter 8.

- A. 1. The wise man asked to the first traveller that what kind of people lived in the village , where he came from.
2. The first traveller replied to wise man that there were mean, cruel and rude people lived in the village.
3. The first traveller was himself mean, cruel and rude .
4. The other traveller replied to the wise man that that there were very kind, courteous, polite and good people lived in his village.
5. The wise man reacted into the same manner as the travellers used to think about others .
6. We learnt from the story that we see the world as we are from inside.

Chapter 9.

- A. 1. Mount Everest was first time scaled by Sir Edmund Hillary on 29th May, 1953 .
2. High Adventure.
3. In 1952, he attempted to climb Mount Everest, but failed.
4. Hillary seems himself as failure, so he moved away from the microphone and walked to the edge of the platform.
5. On the stage Edmund Hillary made a fist and pointed towards Mt. Everest and said that it beated him first time but he would beat it to the next time because it had grown as much as it could grow but he was still growing.

Chapter 10.

- A. 1. Ant came to spring in search of water.
2. While climbing on a blade of grass the ant slipped and fell into the water.
3. The dove quickly plucked off a leaf and dropped it into the water .

4. The ant quickly bit the Hunter on his heel.
5. Due to the feeling of pain, hunter dropped his net.
6. Moral of the story, if we think good for others and help them , then God would always help us.

Chapter 11.

- A.
1. The wood of tree was covered by prickly sand and its bark was burned by sun but still the lonely tree was living with all difficulties.
 2. The hawk saw the tree and sat on its branch and asked from it, why the tree was living in the hot, dead sand and who needed him.
 3. The tree replied to hawk that he, the hawk, need him.
 4. The hawk agreed, when tree explained that , if it was not there then hawk had to sit on hot sand instead of its branches and hawk would be alone in the vast desert .
 5. The hawk found respect for tree and realised every being on the surface of the earth has an importance in environment .
 6. The moral of the story is every entity on this earth is important.