

Chapter 1.

- A. 1. Women reached the airport for boarding the flight.
2. Women bought a book and a bag of cookies from airport shops.
3. While reading the book, women noticed that the man sitting besides her grabbed a cookie or two from the bag.
4. When the last cookie was left, that man nervously took that cookie and broke it in to half.
5. As she reached her hand in her baggage, she was surprised to see that there was a bag of cookies , in front of her eyes.
- B. 1. False, 2. False, 3. True , 4. False, 5. True.

Chapter 2.

- A. 1. Naveen was a young mechanical engineer.
2. Naveen went to the plant one evening due to a technical snag developed in the plant.
3. By the time Naveen finished his work , it was too late. The doors were sealed and the lights were off and he trapped inside the ice plant.
4. The security guard helped Naveen.
5. Naveen was only the one who used to say Hello in the morning and Bye in the evening to the security guard but that day he didn't met him in the evening, so this way the guard came to know about Naveen .
6. We learned from this story that actual education is our attitude, actions, language and behaviour with others.
- B. 1. Snag, mechanical, 2. Torch , 3. Gesture, 4. Smile.

Chapter 3.

- A. 1. The farmer wanted to teach his sons the value of hard work.
2. The farmer told his sons when he was ill that he had buried a treasure in his field but he forgot the exact place.
3. The farmer's sons were sad because they dug the field from end to end but did not got anything.
4. During heavy rain they sow seeds in the fields and got good crop, this way they became rich.
5. The real treasure was actually the good crop from the fields.
- B. 1. False, 2. False, 3. False, 4. True, 5. True.
- C. 1. Success , 2. Four, 3. Responsibility, 4. Confidence, 5. Aim.

Chapter 4.

- A. 1. Mercantile, 2. Proficient, 3. Glum and grumpy, 4. Competitors, 5. Losses.
- B. 1. One was good in sales, the other one was competent in purchases and the third one in finance.
2. The fallacy among the sons was that each of them was an expert in their individual own way and can handle their individual business solely.

3. The result of their separation was, three sons became each other's competitors and got huge losses in their business.
4. The father advised them to run business successfully, they must be joint together because they altogether responsible for a successful business not any one of them.
5. The moral of the story unity is strength , alone may cause failure.

Chapter 5.

- A.
1. Buffalo lived with a mischievous monkey in the forest.
 2. Monkey troubled the Buffalo either by pulling his tail, throwing nuts on his head or jumping on his back from the tree.
 3. On the monkey's prank other animals thought that why did the Buffalo tolerate all the mischief.
 4. Elephant asked Buffalo that why he do not teach a lesson to the monkey for his mischief.
 5. Buffalo replied to elephant that he is thankful to monkey for teaching him how to be patient.
 6. Monkey felt ashamed and apologized on hearing the buffalo's answer.
- B.
1. True, 2. False, 3. True, 4. False, 5. True, 6. True.
- C.
1. Elephant said to buffalo, 2. Buffalo said to elephant., 3. Monkey said to Buffalo.

Chapter 6.

- A.
1. Neighbour, 2. Poor, 3. Landlord, 4. Premchand, 5. Ramchand.
- B.
1. Premchand said to Ramchand. 2. Ramchand said to Premchand.
- C.
1. Ramchand was poor. He had no money for stealing , so he had deep sound sleep and peaceful life.
 2. Premchand was tensed because he was always bothered that someone might break open his safes and steal away his money.
 3. Premchand envy Ramchand because of his peaceful life.
 4. Premchand called Ramchand and gave him a boxful of cash and said to keep that cash with him to live in prosperity.
 5. After receiving the box from Premchand, Ramchand was very happy and joyful throughout the day but he couldn't sleep at night and remained disturbed.
 6. The moral of story is – Money cannot get everything.

Chapter 7.

- A.
1. A wealthy man gave the goat to the priest.
 2. Priest happily slung the goat over his shoulder and began the journey towards his home.
 3. The cheats thought and planned to take goat by made the priest fool, for their delicious meal
 4. The first cheat said to the priest that why he as a pious man carrying a dog on his shoulder.
 5. The third cheat said to priest that why he was carring a donkey on his shoulder and making him a laughing stock.
 6. At last, the priest frightened and he hurled the goat on the roadside and run away.
 7. The three cheats laughed at the gullible priest and caught the goat for their meal.

- B. 1. First cheat said to the priest.
- 2. Second cheat said to priest.
- 3. Third cheat said to priest.

Chapter 8.

- A. 1. The blind man carried a lighted lamp with him in the night.
 - 2. Young travellers met the blind man one night.
 - 3. The traveller's commented that he was blind and couldn't saw anything then why he carrying the lighted lamp with him.
 - 4. The blind man replied that he carrying this lamp for the people like them who can see but may not see the blind man and pushed them.
 - 5. The travellers felt ashamed and apologized him for their behavior.
- B. 1. Lighted lamp , 2. Travellers , 3. Comment, 4. Blind, 5. Apologized.

Chapter 9.

- A. 1. A doctor, a lawyer, a little boy and a priest were in the afternoon flight.
 - 2. The doctor said that he must live as he save lives of others and jumped out.
 - 3. The lawyer said that the lawyers are smartest people in the world , so he deserved to live.
 - 4. The priest said to little boy that priest had lived long and full life and little boy is young to live whole life , so he should use last parachute.
 - 5. The boy replied that not to worry as lawyer , smartest man, took his back pack instead of parachute and handed the parachutes to priest.
 - 6. The little boy and priest landed safely .
- B. 1. Sunday afternoon , 2. Grabbed, 3. Three, 4. Long and full, 5. Back pack.

Chapter 10.

- A. 1. There was a theft in a merchant's house.
 - 2. Birbal came to merchant house to catch the thief.
 - 3. Birbal gave a stick of equal length to each servant of the merchant hand and told to the servants that the stick of the real thief will be longer by two inches next day.
 - 4. Birbal asked all servants should be present again with their sticks.
 - 5. Birbal asked every servant to show their stick and by saw them he pointed out the thief.
 - 6. Birbal caught the thief by observing the two inches shorter stick in the hand of the servant.
- B. 1. Suspected, 2. Assembled, 3. Present, 4. Show, 5. Shorter.

Chapter 11.

- A. 1. Akbar's brother in law asked Emperor to dispense with Birbal's services and appointed him in his place.
- 2. Akbar asked from Birbal's brother in law by giving three hundred gold coins that to spend them in such a way that he got one hundred gold coins in this life , one hundred coins in the other world and rest one hundred gold coins